You can access the cookie configurator at any time by clicking here.

What are cookies?

A cookie is a file that is downloaded to devices when accessing certain web pages, platforms or applications, to store and retrieve information while the user accesses its contents. Cookies can be used for very different purposes, such as, for example, recognizing the user, obtaining information about the user's browsing habits, or customizing the way in which the content is shown to the user.

Which cookies are used on this website?

Acceptance, rejection and configuration of cookies

As indicated in the previous section, you can give your consent for the use of all cookies on your device:

- By clicking the “Accept cookies” button on the cookies banner available on this web page, or
By clicking the “Accept cookies” button in the cookie configurator on this website, which you can access through the cookies banner or through this policy, or
- By selecting all the options provided and then clicking the “Save configuration” button in the cookie configurator on this web page, which you can access through the cookies banner or through this policy.

On the other hand, according to what is indicated in the previous section, you can refuse your consent for the use of all the cookies mentioned on your device:

- By clicking the “Reject cookies” button on the cookie banner available on this web page, or
By clicking the “Reject cookies” button of the cookie configurator on this website, which you can access through the cookies banner or through this policy.

Keep in mind that if you accept third-party cookies, these must be deleted from the browser options or from the system offered by the third party itself for this purpose.

We remind you that you can delete your browser’s browsing history (including cookies) by consulting the options and instructions provided by your browser.

You can choose at any time, among the cookies mentioned, which cookies you allow and which cookies you reject for use on the device, and give your consent for this purpose. In the cookie configurator on this web page, you can enable the cookies that you decide to allow on the device, or prevent the activation of those cookies that you decide not to allow on the device, by selecting or deselecting them respectively and then clicking the “Save preferences” button.

In addition, you can access additional information on how to enable, delete and/or manage the use of cookies, through the corresponding browser, as indicated below:
