You can find out about transfers to third countries that, where applicable, are made by the third parties identified here, in their cookie policies (see the link corresponding to +Meet the third-party).

Personal data will be considered to be processed through cookies when the user has identified themselves through a name or email address that identifies them, or when they use unique identifiers that allow certain users to be distinguished from the rest and to be tracked individually. For additional and detailed information on the rights of the user and the processing of their personal data carried out through the cookies of this website, you can consult the privacy policy here.

Acceptance, rejection and setting of cookies

As indicated in the previous section, you can give your consent for the use of all cookies on your device:

- By clicking on the "Accept cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking on the "Accept cookies" button in the cookie settings panel of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy, or
- By selecting all the options provided and then clicking on the "Save preferences" button in the cookie settings panel of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

On the other hand, as indicated in the previous section, you can refuse your consent for the use of all the aforementioned cookies on your device:

- By clicking on the "Reject cookies" button on the cookie banner available on this website, or
- By clicking on the "Reject cookies" button in the cookie settings panel of this website, which you can access through the cookie banner or through this policy.

Please note that if you accept third-party cookies, they must be deleted from the browser options or from the system offered by the third party for this purpose.

We remind you that you can delete your browsing history (including cookies) from your browser by consulting the options and instructions provided by your browser.

You can choose at any time, from among the aforementioned cookies, which cookies you allow and which cookies you reject for use on your device, and give your consent for this purpose. In the cookie settings panel of this website you can enable the cookies that you decide to allow on your device, or prevent the activation of those cookies that you decide not to allow on your device, by selecting or deselecting them respectively and then clicking on the "Save preferences" button.

In addition, you can access additional information on how to enable, delete and/or manage the use of cookies, through the corresponding browser, as indicated below:
